

8. Some systems work together to keep the body functioning. Which systems work together to filter urea from your blood?
- A. the circulatory and urinary systems
  - B. the urinary and digestive systems
  - C. the nervous and circulatory systems
  - D. the respiratory and urinary systems
9. Which of the following is true?
- A. Deoxygenated blood has to be pumped through all four chambers of the heart before picking up oxygen from the lungs.
  - B. Oxygenated blood has to be pumped through all four chambers of the heart before being delivered to the rest of the body.
  - C. Deoxygenated blood flows through two chambers of the heart before being oxygenated by the lungs.
  - D. Blood picks up carbon dioxide in the lungs to be distributed to the rest of the body.
10. The stomach is an important part of your digestive system. Which of these jobs does the stomach NOT do:
- A. keep food from going down the windpipe (trachea)
  - B. break down food
  - C. empty food into the small intestine
  - D. store food